

Amanda Barratt Thompson
PerformanceWest Physical Therapy
1551 S. Renaissance Towne, Dr. Suite 350, Bountiful, Utah 84010
801-295-3553

Experience

PerformanceWest Physical Therapy

2005-present

Emphasis in development and implementation of a vestibular, balance and fall prevention program at Bountiful and Clearfield locations

Experience in orthopedics, geriatrics and neurological conditions

Experience in home health physical therapy and rehabilitation (geriatric and post-operative) settings

Clinical Instructor for Physical Therapy Interns 2006- present

Education

University of Utah: 2005 Doctorate of Physical Therapy

University of Utah: 2003 Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy Studies

Salt Lake Community College: 2000 Associate of Science

Lone Peak High School: 1998 Graduate with Honors

Professional Development

Continuing Education and Short Courses in the following topics:

Vestibular Rehabilitation, Advanced Vestibular Rehabilitation, Traumatic Brain Injury and Concussion, Pilates, Neurological Rehabilitation, Posture, Gait, Orthopedic conditions: shoulder, neck, lumbar spine, knee and hip

Professional Licenses/Certifications

Doctor of Physical Therapy 2005-present

First Aid CPR,AED 2001-present

Professional and Academic Awards

Academic Scholarships to Salt Lake Community College

Professional Individual Award presented by Northern Wasatch Advocates for Aging

Professional Presentations

Physical Therapy for Patients with Post-Polio Spring 2012

Instructor for Stepping On An evidence based fall prevention program coordinated by the Davis County Health Department and for members of the surrounding community: 2011-present

Multiple fall risk screens, vestibular and balance education, and fall prevention lectures performed at community centers in Davis County: 2005-present

Professional Memberships

American Physical Therapy Association 2005-present

Utah Physical Therapy Association 2005-present

Geriatric Sections Member 2013-present